LOCAL JOTTINGS.
Electric lighting is postponed for another year at least.

The annual Town Meeting will be held on Monday evening, April 4.

John Ferguson of Charles Street is confined to his home with scarlet fever.

Mrs. Mary Perry of Benson Street is visiting Mrs. Nehemiah Perry in Boston.

John Townsend, a former resident of this place, was in town this week visiting friends.

George Leibold of Connecticut has been visiting his mother on New Street the past two weeks.

Miss Josie Flannagan of Millburn was the guest of Miss Nora Quinn of Bloomfield Avenue this week.

A whist party was given at the residence of Dr. W. H. Van Gieson on Washington Avenue last night.

John H. Lockwood and family have left Philadelphia and taken up their residence on Myrtle Street.

Mrs. Catharine Lockwood of Brookdale, who has been visiting her son in Philadelphia, has returned home.

A cinder-walk is being laid on the west side of Walnut Street north of the N. Y. and Greenwood Lake Railway.

Miss Sloat, teacher in the grammar school, was called home to Newburgh to attend her mother who is seriously ill.

John F. Hallinan of Broad Street, who is a salesman for a New York cutlery firm, has gone West on a business trip.

Robert E. Hughes, a well known and popular young man about town, is confined to his home in Berkeley Avenue by sickness.

Mrs. Selma Seymour, wife of Alderman Seymour of Orange, who is well known in this place, was buried in that city on Sunday.

Mrs. Martha Babcock of Warwick, Orange County, N. Y., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. S. Lockwood of Thomas Street.

A ball and fair will be held at Raab's Hall on Monday evening, February 29, by the Bloomfield P. K. U. V. for the benefit of the sick fund.

A surprise party was tendered Miss Harriet Walker at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Frank Gahs, jr., of Spruce Street last Monday evening.

The contingent account will be a conspicuous feature in the annual report of the Township Committee. It will be worthy of special study.

Frank H. Baker of the firm of A. Baker & Son has purchased the house and lot on Franklin Street formerly owned by Mrs. Cora E. Taylor. Price $3,500.

A debate was held in Phil Kearny Council, N.P.U., last Monday night; subject, "Mud vs. Diamonds." The judge decided in favor of mud, after a heated debate on both sides.

Bloomfield has superior hotel accommodations to Montclair. All the show-people who play at the Montclair Opera House stop at the American House or Leuthausser's Hotel.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Essex County Building and Loan Association held in Dodd's Hall on Thursday evening, $3,000 was sold at an average of 3-4 per cent. premium.

In selecting Committeemen this year voters should not overlook the fact that bonds will probably be issued during the year, and it will require capable men to conduct the business.

Charles H. Johnson, Treasurer of Essex Hook and Ladder Co., has sent a check for five dollars to the Mountain-side Hospital fund. This is the company's annual subscription.

A brother of Garret Pier of Race Street died in New York last week.

Post & Moffat will sell at auction the household furniture of J. W. Breerton on Thursday morning.

Many citizens are disappointed over the postponement of electric-lighting, particularly the arc lights.

Miss Florence Post of Franklin Street, who has been visiting Mrs. Dr. James Bailey of Newark, has returned home.

Meeker & Devansney have the contract for building two new houses for W. T. Tallafiero near Ridgewood Avenue.

Harold Clark of Liberty Street broke through the ice on Oakes's Pond on Wednesday, but was rescued by his companions.

The "Conundrum Supper," under the auspices of the King's Daughters in the parlors of the First Presbyterian Church on Tuesday evening was a great success.

An illustrated missionary lecture on "Palestine" will be given next Tuesday evening in the German Presbyterian Church by the pastor, the Rev. H. W. Seibert.

George Peterson made an interesting report at the Essex County Building and Loan Association meeting on Tuesday night of the proceedings of the recent meeting of the State League.

There is a friendly rivalry between Mrs. A. Day and Samuel A. Andrew as to which one will dispose of the largest number of tickets for the gift entertainment of the Eureka Association, K. of P., on March 7.

A valuable St. Bernard dog owned by James Adams dropped dead on Bloomfield Avenue, near Race Street, last Sunday afternoon. Mr. Adams is of the opinion the dog was poisoned. He was offered $20 for him a few days previous.

A great many useful as well as ornamental articles have been added to the stock of gifts for Eureka Association's entertainment, among them a New Home sewing-machine and a piano. The gifts are on exhibition in Shoenthal's and Day's windows.

The members of the police force unanimously denounce as a libel on the force the portrait of a policeman that adorns the fence between the Truck House and Voorhees' cigar store. They say that no well regulated policeman would handle his bottle in such a careless manner.

Miss Daisy Saxton returned home this week after an absence of five months. She spent most of the time in Knoxville, Tenn., with her uncle, the Rev. Dr. Frazer, pastor of the Congregational Church. She also paid a visit to her cousin, Major Saxton, who has served nearly thirty consecutive years in the military and civil service.

The "Jolly Eight," a social club composed of eight young men and eight young ladies, held a sociable at the residence of T. E. Hayes on Benson Street last Friday night. Games and other amusements were indulged in. The members are Misses Florence Newton, Alice and Maude Seymour, Edith Bogart, Maude Thompson, Edith McDowell, Ruth Hopping, Emily Stout and N. L. Perry, G. Lee Stout, jr., Gilbert White, G. W. Cook, jr., E. W. Gardner, Guy Hopping, R. N. Dodd, jr., and Clifford Riker.

Contributions for the depot fair are being solicited.

Oakland people will endeavor to secure the macadamizing of East Belleville Avenue this year.

The Oakland Literary Society has been revived, and met last week at the home of Mrs. Edmund Griffith.

The ladies of Oakland will hold a fair in the new Orchard Street Depot on Tuesday evening, March 15. The proceeds will go toward defraying the cost of building.

Oakland has no candidates for township officers, and is not in politics except to cast a solid vote for men who will endeavor to keep down the tax rate to a reasonable figure.

Henry Schaeffer of the U. S. steamer San Francisco is visiting his aunt, Mrs. Brinkmann, on Belleville Avenue. Mr. Schaeffer was aboard the Nipise when she was stranded by the hurricane at Samoa, three years ago. The San Francisco was at Santiago, but left before the trouble with the sailors of the Baltimore.

The selection of a young man to fill the position of ticket agent in the new Orchard Street railway station is the principal topic now agitating the minds of the people of Oakland. Rudolph Bruett, it is said, has declined the position. Thomas Mitchell, jr., is after the place, and it is thought he has a good chance of getting it.

The power of the press is exemplified in the increase in wealth in Oakland. Three years ago that section was a market garden and land had a mere nominal value. Just about that time THE CITIZEN turned its attention to the place and gave it prominence. The result has been an increase of over 200 per cent. in land values, a large number of new houses, and a railway depot. THE CITIZEN should have no difficulty in finding subscribers in Oakland.

The Newark Bee Hive will be as usual close Monday, Feb. 22, at noon.—Adv.

Political Notes.

Trimming for re-election is peanut politics.

George W. Panoast is being talked of for Town Committeeman-at-Large.

William H. Linder is spoken of as the Democratic nominee for Committeeman from the Third Ward.

Arthur J. Lockwood is favorably regarded as an excellent candidate for Town Committeeman-at-Large.

It is said there will be numerous bids made to the Town Committee for the street-sprinkling privilege this year.

Thomas Rawson's friends in the Second Ward are pushing him for the Republican nomination for Overseer of the Poor.

George W. Panoast's name is being prominently mentioned for the Republican nomination for Committeeman-at-Large.

A bill has been passed by the Legislature making the term of Township Clerks three years instead of one, as at present.

Samuel G. Hayter has decided not to be a candidate for the nomination for Township Clerk. This leaves William L. Johnson a clear field.

The change in the date of the election from March to April will make it a county election, and it is said the township will have to print the tickets.

David G. Garabrant is being earnestly pleaded with to allow the use of his name in the Republican primary for Committeeman from the First Ward.

The friends of Messrs. Yearnease, Brokaw and Fisher in Brookdale are each working quietly to secure the nomination for Town Committee from the Second Ward for their respective candidates.

The Second Ward Republican Club held their regular monthly drill last Tuesday evening. A flagpole was put up on their building on Maple Street for their new flag. A special meeting of the club will be held next Tuesday evening.

A prominent Third Ward Democrat says the reason for changing of Election Day from March 8 to April 12 was to allow the members of their party to attend the inauguration of a Democratic President next year without interfering with their local party duties.

Send your stock of surplus books to the Free Library.

Several cases of scarlet fever are reported from Willow Street. Too much care cannot be taken to prevent the spread of the disease.

The official board of the Watsessing M. E. Church have extended a call to their pastor, the Rev. Elbert Clement, to remain with them another year.

A key for fire-alarm box 69 at the Watsessing depot has been placed with A. C. McCroly, the gateman at Orange Street. The gateman's cabin is open all night, and the key can be procured at any time.

The Free Public Library Coterie have dropped local politics as a topic of conversation, and now amuse themselves with hunting and fishing stories.

Francis Law is at the head of the class with a snapping-turtle story.

Mr. and Mrs. Joshua W. Taylor met with a sad bereavement on Monday in the death of their four-and-a-half-year-old daughter Alice, a bright little girl much loved by a wide circle of friends.

Death was due to scarlet fever of a malignant type. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor have the deep sympathy of the community in their loss.

Drowned in the Canal.
Arthur Cummings, an eight-year-old Newark boy, was skating on the canal toward Bloomfield on Thursday. When near the bridge on the old road to Newark he broke through the ice and was drowned.

The closing exercises of the public school yesterday afternoon were interesting. The programme in honor of Washington's Birthday consisted of singing "America" by the school; a piano solo by Miss Flossie Salmons; a violin solo by Miss Alice Seymour, with Miss Florence Newton as accompanist. The exercises closed with singing "God be With You Till We Meet Again."
